The HICHA mission is to promote and celebrate cutting and reined cow horse enthusiasts. The organization has 68 members that reside predominantly on the island of Hawai'i. The organization supports the Hawaiian ranching heritage and promotes good horsemanship to a membership of all ages.

The HICHA hosts an annual show schedule consisting of Cutting, Reining, and Cow Horse events, including clinics and play days. Additionally, the organization has been awarding college scholarships to participating youth, as well as free membership and waived entries. The organization accommodates everyone from beginning to the advanced competitor of all ages and culminates with an Annual Big Island Cow Horse Championship in November. In addition to fundraising for youth scholarships and the annual championship show, HICHA expanded to serve the members that reside on the island of O'ahu.

OUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The HICHA is proud of its accomplishments since inception and continues to strengthen its membership offerings each year.

- ◆ Continued membership growth on the island of Hawai'i, as well as O'ahu.
- ◆ Three HICHA Annual Youth Scholarships ($1,500) awarded annually.
- ◆ Use of National Cutting Horse Association (NCHA) and National Reigned Cow Horse Association (NRCHA) accredited judges – promoting credibility!
- ◆ An informative website – www.hichacutting.org – that honors our sponsors, supporters, and membership for the entire year.
- ◆ FREE youth entry fees and added monies throughout the year!
- ◆ Beautiful year-end buckles, saddles, and awards presented at the annual championship show in November.

These accomplishments were made possible through contributions received from our loyal sponsors and supporters – MAHALO NUI! To expand our accomplishments in 2020, your support is needed!

Due to COVID restrictions and these trying our Hawaii economy has seen, we have drastically reduced our show season to focus on playdays and practicing. We will be finalizing our 2020 season with two back to back shows. We hope to have a full slate of shows for the 2021 season and bring back our Annual Cow Horse Championship Show. We appreciate your support!
